

Department of International Politics
Global Governance Course

Subjects
Political Theory
International Politics
International Political Economy
Contemporary International Political Economy
Method for Area Studies
Research Methods in Social Sciences
Fundamental Microeconomics
Fundamental Macroeconomics
International Economics I
Statistical Analysis I
Game Theory I
International Relations Thought
Comparative Politics
International Security : Theory
European Diplomatic History
International Law
International Economic Law
Studies on the United Nations
International Human Rights Law
American Diplomacy
American Politics
European Politics
European Diplomacy
Russian Politics and Diplomacy
Central Asian Politics and Diplomacy
Chinese Politics
Chinese Diplomacy
Politics in the Asia-Pacific
Diplomacy in the Asia-Pacific
Middle Eastern Politics and Diplomacy
African Politics and Diplomacy
South Asian Politics and Diplomacy
Southeast Asian Politics and Diplomacy
Central and Latin American Politics and Diplomacy
Politics and Diplomacy in the Korean Peninsula
Special Topics in International Politics
Global Governance
International Institutions
Global Environmental Politics
International Administration
International NGOs
Intercultural Ethics
Multinational Business Management
International Public Policy I / II
Environmental Economics I / II
Policy on Natural Resources
International Economic Development Policy
Special Topics (Global Governance)
EU Studies
Human Security
Peacebuilding
Global Issues
Seminar I / II (International Politics)