- IV 次の4つのダイアログを読んで、36～40の問いに対する答えとして最も適切なものを、それぞれ①～④の中から1つ選び、解答欄36から40にマークしなさい。

Dialogue A

At the textile factory, two workers are talking about the production deadline.

Frank: Considering how many boxes were processed yesterday and today, it doesn't look like we can get it all done by Monday after all.

Jessica: What if we speed up production by bringing in more people?

Frank: That is already in the pipeline, as we speak. But will it be enough?

Jessica (throwing up her hands): At this point, it's anyone's guess.

36. When Frank says, "That is already in the pipeline," he means that _____.

- ① the plan to bring in more workers is already underway
- ② the plan to expand the pipes in the factory is weak
- ③ the people coming to the factory are now in a tunnel-like structure
- ④ the people coming to the factory are stuck in the pipes

37. Jessica's final reply that "it's anyone's guess" suggests that _____.

- ① no one can meet the deadline
- ② any person can see that they will not be able to meet the deadline
- ③ no one knows for sure whether or not they will meet the deadline
- ④ all people agree that meeting the deadline is the only option

Dialogue B

Barry and Rashid are talking with Jim, a salesman at a used car dealership.

Barry: To tell the truth, I still dream about getting a new truck.

Jim: Everyone feels that way, at first — until they open their wallets, that is! Then they think twice about it.

Rashid: He's right, Barry. You can get a perfectly good used truck for so much less money. Just think what you can do with the money you save!

Jim: Go to Hawaii maybe?

Barry: I wish! Even if I get the cheapest truck here, I'll be lucky to break even.

38. What does Barry mean by using the expression "break even"?

- ① He hopes he will neither lose money nor gain money after buying the used truck.
- ② He believes that he will save enough money to go to Hawaii.
- ③ He dreams that the prices of used trucks and new trucks are the same.
- ④ He is afraid that a used truck will break down.

Dialogue C

Amir and Romina are talking at the school cafeteria.

Amir: Wow, you look tired today.

Romina: Yeah, I woke up feeling a little under the weather.

Amir: But we have a test tomorrow!

Romina: I know. I just have to hope for the best.

39. When Romina says that she feels “under the weather,” she means

_____.

- ① she feels sleepy, because it is a rainy day
- ② she feels sad, even though the weather is good
- ③ she is a little anxious
- ④ she might be getting physically ill

Dialogue D

A mother comforts her five-year-old daughter when she cannot find her teddy bear.

Sally (in tears): But where can he be if he is not in the car? Is he gone forever?

Mother: Oh no. Wait now, let’s think about this. Maybe you gave him a ride in the grocery store cart? He might still be at the store.

Sally: Do you really think so?

Mother: Of course. Anyway, I promise you, he will turn up if we just keep looking and leave no stone unturned.

Sally: Okay. I will check my room again, just in case!

40. When Sally’s mother says that they should “leave no stone unturned,” she means that _____.

- ① they might find the teddy bear under some stones if they look there
- ② they should look in every possible place to find the teddy bear
- ③ they should go back to the grocery store and overturn the carts, just in case
- ④ they might find the teddy bear anywhere, turned over like a stone
